FACES OF THE BIG TEN

RYAN McDONALD, Illinois senior center

McDonald, a four-year starter, graduated summa cum laude in May 2008 with a bachelor's degree in aerospace engineering, and he currently is pursuing a master's degree in the same field. Illinois' engineering graduate programs ranked fifth nationally in the 2008 U.S. News & World Report. In the spring of 2007, McDonald's class did research for NASA on nanofibers. The Holland, Mich., native also has strong passion for philanthropy. He organized over a dozen teammates to take part in the 2008 M.S. Walk, an annual fundraiser in the Champaign-Urbana community to raise money and awareness for the crippling disease of multiple sclerosis. McDonald's mother, Jan, has suffered from M.S. for the past 15 years, spurring him to be the top fundraiser at the event by raising over $1,500.

BIG TEN. BIG NEWS.

Close Calls: Every Big Ten game was decided in the final minute last Saturday, including two game-clinching field goals, an interception returned for a touchdown and a hook-and-ladder pass for the go-ahead score. Northwestern kicked off the day of narrow triumphs as safety Brendan Smith picked off a deflected Minnesota pass and returned it 48 yards with 12 seconds left in the game to secure a 24-17 victory. In West Lafayette, a high-scoring back-and-forth game was finally ended when Purdue quarterback Justin Siller completed a four-yard pass to Greg Orton, who then lateraled to Desmond Tardy to scamper the remaining 28 yards for a touchdown and a 48-42 lead with only 26 seconds on the clock. Michigan State wrapped up the early games by rallying from a 24-13 fourth-quarter deficit against Wisconsin, capped by a 44-yard field goal by Brett Swenson with seven seconds left to secure the 25-24 victory. Not to be outdone, Iowa stormed back after trailing 24-9 in the fourth quarter to tie the score at 24-24 on a two-point conversion with less than three minutes remaining, only to see Illinois drive 51 yards to set up Matt Eller's game-winning 46-yard field goal with 24 seconds on the clock.

Five-Team Race for Big Ten Crown: With three weekends of Big Ten play remaining, only five teams have a chance to win the 2008 conference crown. Michigan State edged Wisconsin on Saturday to improve to 5-1 in Big Ten play, while Penn State had a bye to remain in first place with an unblemished 5-0 mark. Since the Spartans and Nittany Lions meet in the season finale, neither team can finish with more than two losses, which means the only other teams with a shot at the title are Ohio

State (4-1), Minnesota (3-2) and Northwestern (3-2). PSU returns to action next Saturday at Iowa as the Nittany Lions hope to wrap up a perfect road record in Big Ten play. MSU hosts Purdue on Saturday and then has a bye before concluding the season at Penn State. The three-time defending champion Buckeyes are back on the field with a road game against the Wildcats, while the Golden Gophers host Michigan. Penn State can clinch a share of the Big Ten title this weekend with a win over Iowa combined with losses by Michigan State and Ohio State.

A Three-Week Sprint: Among the five teams still fighting for the Big Ten title, Ohio State may face the toughest remaining schedule with two of three games on the road. Minnesota, Northwestern and Penn State all have two of their three games at home while Michigan State has only two games remaining, one at home and one on the road. In regards to the opponents' records, MSU boasts the most challenging slate with its two foes producing a combined record of 6-4 (.600), including a season finale at undefeated PSU. The remaining opponents for the Nittany Lions and Wildcats stand at 8-8 in conference (.500). The schedule breakdown for the top four teams appears below.

Schedule Breakdown For Top Five Teams

Illini and Hawkeyes Stand One Win From Bowl Berth: Illinois edged Iowa on Saturday to move one step closer to back-to-back bowl berths while preventing the Hawkeyes from reaching postseason eligibility. Both teams stand at 5-4 overall, with the Illini wrapping up non-conference action against Western Michigan in Detroit while Iowa hosts Penn State on Saturday. Head coach Ron Zook is looking to lead Illinois to consecutive bowl appearances for the first time since the Illini reached the postseason in five straight seasons from 1988-92. The Hawkeyes were bowl eligible in each of the previous seven seasons under head coach Kirk Ferentz, but did not play in a bowl last year despite their 6-6 record. Iowa is looking to return to postseason action for the first time since the 2006 Alamo Bowl. Among other Big Ten teams, Wisconsin stands at 4-5, just two wins from bowl eligibility. The Big Ten has seven bowl tie-ins this season - the Rose Bowl/Bowl Championship Series (BCS) game, Capital One, Outback, Alamo, Champs Sports, Insight and Motor City Bowls. If the Big Ten champion (or co-champion) is ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS rankings, then that team will participate in the BCS National Championship Game, to be played on Jan. 8, 2009 in Miami, Fla.

And Then There Were Six: With two more undefeated teams suffering their first losses on Saturday, Penn State is now one of six teams boasting unblemished records this season. The Nittany Lions are one of four teams standing at 9-0 along with Alabama, Texas Tech and Utah, while Ball State and Boise State are off to 8-0 starts this season. PSU has produced its first 9-0 mark since 1999 when the team won its first nine games. The last time the Nittany Lions opened the season with more than nine victories was in 1994, when they produced a perfect 12-0 record. Head coach Joe Paterno has now led the program to a 9-0 start for the 10th time overall and a 5-0 start in conference play for the third time, including a 5-0 mark in 1999 and a perfect 8-0 season in 1994. Penn State also boasts a current 10-game winning streak, tied with Alabama and Utah for the nation's second-longest win streak among all Football Bowl Subdivision schools, trailing only Texas Tech (11).

Another Four Million Fans: The Big Ten surpassed the four-million mark in all games attendance last weekend for the 16th straight season and the 19th time in conference annals. Big Ten stadiums have welcomed 4,237,227 fans in 61 games for an average of 69,463 patrons per contest as the conference aims to average more than 69,000 fans per game for the eighth straight season. Illinois and Michigan State both boasted packed houses last Saturday, giving the Big Ten 31 sellouts through 10 weekends. With an average of more than three full houses per weekend and three Saturdays left in the regular season, the conference has the chance to produce 40 or more sellouts for just the second time in history, after setting a record with 42 packed stadiums last season. The conference also surpassed the two million mark for conference games only last weekend and boasts 2,090,642 fans for 29 contests. Big Ten schools are averaging 72,091 patrons per contest in conference games, which would mark just the second season in conference annals with an average attendance over 72,000. The Big Ten record for conference games only was set in 2005 when schools averaged 72,169 fans per outing.

OSU's Laurinaitis and PSU's Clark Named Semifinalists for National Awards: Two Big Ten standouts were named semifinalists for national honors last week when Ohio State linebacker James Laurinaitis was tabbed a semifinalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award while Penn State signal caller Daryll Clark was chosen as a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award. Laurinaitis was a finalist for the Lombardi Award last season, which honors the nation's top lineman or linebacker. The senior standout is a two-time consensus All-American and won the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker as a junior and the Nagurski Award as the country's top defensive player as a sophomore. The Big Ten has claimed the Lombardi Award on eight occasions, most recently when the Buckeyes' A.J. Hawk and Michigan's LaMarr Woodley claimed the honor in back-to-back seasons in 2005 and 2006. Other Lombardi Award winners from the Big Ten include Ohio State's Jim Stillwagon (1970), John Hicks (1973), Chris Spielman (1987) and Orlando Pace (1995 and 1996) and Michigan State's Percy Snow (1989). Clark was named a semifinalist for the O'Brien Award, honoring the nation's best quarterback. Four Big Ten student-athletes have claimed the O'Brien Award, including Iowa's Chuck Long (1985) and Brad Banks (2002), OSU's Troy Smith (2006) and PSU's Kerry Collins (1994).

BIG TEN PLAYERS OF THE WEEK -- GAMES OF NOV. 1

CO-OFFENSE:

Mike Kafka, Northwestern
JR, QB, Chicago, Ill./St. Rita

Starting in place of the injured C.J. Bachér, Kafka set a Big Ten record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 217 yards on the ground while adding 143 yards and two touchdowns through the air to lead Northwestern to a triumph at Minnesota. The junior signal caller averaged eight yards per carry with 27 rushes for 217 yards, while also completing 12-of-16 (75.0 percent) passes to amass a career-best 360 yards of total offense. The Big Ten record for single-game rushing yards by a quarterback was held by Purdue's Gary Danielson, who ran for 213 yards against Washington in 1972. Kafka opened the scoring with a 36-yard touchdown pass and led another drive for a field goal and a 10-0 advantage. The Gophers rallied to take a 14-10 lead before Kafka led another scoring drive. The Chicago native broke loose on a 53-yard run before tossing a two-yard touchdown to retake the lead in the second quarter. He picks up his first career weekly accolade.

LAST NU OFFENSIVE POW: QB C.J. Bachér on Sept. 29, 2008.

Justin Siller, Purdue
SO, QB, Detroit, Mich./St. Mary's

With both the starting and backup quarterbacks injured, Siller made his first start, set career highs in every category and accounted for four touchdowns, including the game-winning pass on a hook-and-ladder play with 26 seconds on the clock to give Purdue a 48-42 victory over Michigan.

The sophomore, who started the season as a running back but returned to the quarterback position in mid-October, completed 21-of-34 passes (61.8 percent) for 266 yards and three touchdowns while rushing for 77 yards on 15 carries with another score. After the Wolverines tied the score with just over a minute left in the game, Siller led a four-play, 73-yard scoring drive. On second-and-seven at the 32-yard line, he completed a four-yard pass to Greg Orton, who lateraled the ball to Desmond Tardy to scamper the remaining 28 yards for the game-winning score. Siller earns his first career weekly laurel.

LAST PUR OFFENSIVE POW: WR Dorian Bryant on Oct. 22, 2007.

DEFENSE:

Brendan Smith, Northwestern
JR, S, Andover, Mass./New Hampton Prep (N.H.)

Smith snagged a deflected pass and returned it 48 yards for the game-winning touchdown with only 12 seconds left to lead Northwestern to a road victory at Minnesota. The junior safety recorded six tackles in the game as the Wildcats defeated a ranked foe for the first time since 2005.

Smith was part of a Northwestern defense that held the Gophers to only 10 offensive points and 68 rushing yards for the game. After Minnesota tied the score at 17-17 right before halftime, NU held the hosts scoreless in the second half and allowed only one drive over 40 yards. With less than a minute left in the game, the Gophers were looking to mount a game-winning drive only to see a pass deflect off a receiver and a defender. Smith grabbed the ball, weaved through traffic and sprinted 48 yards for a score and THE 24-17 victory. He collects his first career player of the week accolade.

LAST NU DEFENSIVE POW: DE Vince Browne on Sept. 22, 2008.

SPECIAL TEAMS:

Brett Swenson, Michigan State
JR, K, Pompano Beach, Fla./St. Thomas Aquinas

Swenson connected on all four of his field goal attempts, including a 44-yarder with only seven seconds left to help Michigan State rally for a 25-24 victory over Wisconsin. The junior kicker hit field goals of 27 and 21 yards in the first half before the Badgers built a 24-13 lead early in the final stanza. After the Spartans pulled within 24-19, Swenson connected on a career-long 50-yarder with 5:16 to play to cut the deficit to 24-22 and set up his last-second heroics. The Florida native earns the third weekly laurel of his career and on the season, becoming just the sixth player in Big Ten history to earn three or more special teams awards in a single season.

LAST MSU SPECIAL TEAMS POW: K Brett Swenson on Oct. 13, 2008.

McDonald and Robiskie Named Finalists for Top Academic Honor: Illinois' Ryan McDonald and Ohio State's Brian Robiskie were chosen as two of 15 finalists for the 2008 Draddy Trophy, which recognizes one player as the best in the country for combined academic success, football performance and community leadership. The 15 honorees are part of the 2008 National Scholar-Athlete Class, with each player receiving an $18,000 fellowship for postgraduate studies. The group will also vie for the prestigious Draddy Trophy, which is selected by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. The winner, named on Dec. 9, will earn $25,000 for postgraduate work. The Big Ten boasted eight semifinalists for the Draddy Trophy as McDonald and Robiskie were joined by Indiana's Austin Starr, Iowa's Matt Kroul, Northwestern's Eric Peterman, Penn State's Gerald Cadogan, Purdue's Ryan Baker and Wisconsin's Chris Pressley. Nominees for the Draddy Trophy must be a senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale, have outstanding football ability as a first team player or significant contributor and demonstrate strong leadership and citizenship. Two Big Ten student-athletes were named to the 2007 National Scholar-Athlete Class in Illinois' J Leman and Iowa's Mike Klinkenborg. The Big Ten boasts two former Draddy Trophy winners in Ohio State's Craig Krenzle (2003) and Bobby Hoying (1995).

Paterno Still the One: Penn State's Joe Paterno will be aiming for his 382nd victory on Saturday and currently holds the all-time victory record among Football Bowl Subdivision coaches. Paterno stands at 381-125-3 in his 43rd season leading the Nittany Lions while Florida State's Bobby Bowden remained at the 379-win mark after falling to Georgia Tech on Saturday. Paterno has now been on the sidelines for 509 career games, one of only three mentors in NCAA history to crack that barrier along with former Big Ten coach Amos Alonzo Stagg (548 games from 1890-1946 with Springfield, Chicago and Pacific) and Bowden (504 games).

Trophy Games Return: After a one-week absence, the conference's oldest trophy will be on the line this weekend when Michigan and Minnesota battle for the Little Brown Jug. Wolverines' coaching legend Fielding Yost left the jug in Minneapolis after a tie in 1903 and the Gophers refused to return it until Michigan earned it with a win. Michigan reclaimed the jug in their next matchup in 1909 and the two teams have played for the trophy ever since, with the Wolverines holding a 65-22-3 advantage. Michigan retained the jug last season and holds a two-game winning streak in the series after the Gophers ended a 16-game losing streak in 2005 to win the trophy for the first time since 1986. The Big Ten boasts 15 traditional trophy games between schools.

Ratings Bonanza: Penn State's win at Ohio State on Oct. 25 delivered the seventh-highest number of viewers ever for an ABC primetime regular season college football telecast. According to data from ESPN, 7.35 million TV households tuned into the clash and the game earned a 6.4 rating, drawing a larger audience than Game 3 of the World Series, which was seen in 6.99 million TV households and earned a 6.1 rating. The OSU-PSU meeting is the second-highest rated college football game of the 2008 season. Only the Sept. 13 Ohio State-USC game on ABC's Saturday Night Football drew a larger audience, being seen in 7.95 million TV households and earning a 7.0 rating.

Big Ten Schedule Announced for Nov. 15: The following schedule has been confirmed for Nov. 15.

- Ohio State at Illinois, 11 a.m. CST, ESPN or ESPN2*
- Purdue at Iowa, 11 a.m. CST, Big Ten Network

IND LB Matt Mayberry: Matched a school record with four sacks (-33 yards) and added a career-high 13 tackles (10 solo) vs. Central Michigan.
IOWA DT Mitch King: Amassed nine tackles (five solo) and two TFLs (-7 yards) at Illinois.
MSU LB Greg Jones: Produced his fourth straight game of double-digit tackles with 13 stops (seven solo) and a TFL (-2 yards) against Wisconsin.
MINN CB Traye Simmons: Recorded five tackles (three solo), one TFL (-1 yard) and picked off two passes, returning one 23 yards for a TD and halting a Wildcats' drive at the nine-yard line with another.
PUR DE Ryan Kerrigan: Set career highs with 10 tackles (seven solo), 3.5 TFLs (-21 yards) and 3.0 sacks (-21 yards) while adding a forced fumble and a pass breakup against the Wolverines.
WIS CB Allen Langford: Matched career best with seven tackles (six solo) and added two pass breakups at Michigan State.

SPECIAL TEAMS:

ILL K Matt Eller: Connected on both field goal attempts (41, 46), including a 46-yarder with 29 seconds left for a 27-24 win over Iowa.
IND P Chris Hagerup: Booted four punts for 173 yards (43.3 avg.) with three inside the 20.
IOWA K Trent Mossbrucker: Connected on three-of-four field goals (26, 19, 27; Missed from 30).
MICH PR/KR Martavious Odoms: Returned three punts for 82 yards (27.3 avg.), including a 73-yard TD, and three kickoffs for 60 yards (20.0 avg.)
PUR LB Anthony Heygood: Fielded a short snap on a fake punt and rambled 61 yards to set up a fourth-quarter TD against Michigan.

PREVIOUS FACES OF THE BIG TEN

SEPT. 1 -- KYLE ADAMS, PURDUE

Earlier this year Adams decided he wanted to make a greater impact in the lives of kids. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes leader has done just that. Rather than spending his summer on campus, Adams was called to spend part of his time in one of the poorest countries in the Western Hemisphere - Haiti - on a mission trip led by Purdue athletics chaplain Marty Dittmar. In Haiti, Adams had the opportunity to build houses for needy Haitian families. Building upon his experience abroad he worked with the director of Double Harvest Project, Arthur Spalding, to raise some $3,600 for a sports camp in August. It costs $35 for a Haitian child to go to camp for an entire week.

SEPT. 8 -- MATT KROUL, IOWA

The summer of 2008 was one of unthinkable horror and stress in the state of Iowa. Mother nature did not do the state any favors with tornadoes and flooding the likes which have never been seen before in the state. Kroul was one of the first University of Iowa student-athletes to be on the scene at tornado and flood locations to assist those in need. Whether it was sand bagging or helping someone put their house back together, he was there to lend a hand. Kroul truly exhibited the Hawkeye spirit to others around him. The senior defensive tackle is a three-time Academic All-Big Ten player, was named All-Big Ten honorable mention last season and is a four-time member of Iowa's prestigious Leadership Council.

SEPT. 15 -- CHRIS PRESSLEY, WISCONSIN

Chris Pressley once told a reporter that he simply wants to be a light that shines on others and inspires others to reach for their dreams. Having grown up amidst difficult life circumstances in Woodbury, N.J., it would have been easy for the Badger fullback to be anything but a light. Instead he earned a football scholarship to Wisconsin, from where he graduated in three years with a degree in agricultural journalism with a business emphasis. Pressley spent part of last summer in China on an educational trip for students that was sponsored by the UW School of Business. He is now in graduate school and was voted by his teammates as a 2008 captain.

SEPT. 22 -- JACK SIMMONS, MINNESOTA

After graduating with a bachelor's degree in business and marketing education in December of 2007, Simmons is on pace to earn a Master's of Education in applied kinesiology next year. The fifth-year senior has been involved in numerous community service activities with the Gophers, such as Twin Cities Youth Day Out with Gopher Football, the Gopher Nation Women's Clinic, Gopher Nation Fan Fest, visits with local school children and visits to children's hospitals. Simmons' father, Terry, played for the Gophers as well, wearing jersey No. 15. The younger Simmons approached head coach Tim Brewster to ask if he could wear No. 15 on Senior Day in honor of his father and Brewster suggested he wear it all season. Jack informed his father of that decision last Christmas, when the last present given at the family Christmas celebration was from Jack to his father - a No. 15 Gophers jersey with Simmons stitched on the back.

SEPT. 29 -- JAVON RINGER, MICHIGAN STATE

Ringer is respected not only for his success on the field, but for his time spent working with youth in the local community. One of the most active student-athletes in MSU's Multicultural Program, Ringer has participated in numerous events, including the Gear Up College Day Program in which he served as a counselor to help advise middle school children, and the Academic Gladiators program where he expressed the importance of academics to other student-athletes. His vibrant attitude has inspired children at hospitals and the MSU Child Development Lab, while his positive coaching skills at camps and clinics have made him a mentor to young football players. Ringer has proven to be a humble role model that the community has truly come to know, making him a fan favorite in the stands at Spartan Stadium.

OCT. 6 -- BRIAN ROBISKIE, OHIO STATE

A first-team Academic All-American, Robiskie was named one of 30 candidates for the inaugural Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, given to one NCAA Division I football player based on four areas of excellence: classroom, character, community and competition. The senior wideout was also one of three national finalists for the 2008 Arthur Ashe Sports Scholars Award, a first for an OSU student-athlete. Honored earlier this summer, the marketing honors student thanked his parents for emphasizing academics from an early age, and the Ohio State coaches and administration for giving him the chance to obtain an excellent college education. Robiskie concluded with a quote from Ashe: "You are never really playing an opponent. You are playing yourself, your own highest standards and when you reach your limits, that is the real joy."

OCT. 13 -- ERIC PETERMAN, NORTHWESTERN

Peterman is active in no less than eight programs embracing mentoring of fellow students or general leadership and was named to the 2008 AFCA Good Works Team. He is involved in PURPLE Mentors, the APPLE Leadership Conference, NU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, the McCormick School of Engineering Advisory Board and the Undergraduate Leadership Program. In the community, Peterman regularly visits the Children's Memorial Hospital and is an active volunteer for Misericordia, Special Spectators and NU Field Day -- an annual event benefitting Evanston youth organizations. Peterman also was captain of the winning team in Northwestern football's inaugural Wildcat Games, an offseason competition where squads earned points through academics, community service and self-directed workouts.

OCT. 20 -- AUSTIN STARR, INDIANA

Starr achieved a rare combination last season, becoming the second Hoosier to ever earn All-America status both on and off the field. Starr claimed second-team Associated Press All-America status after hitting a school-record 21 field goals. The biology major then collected Academic All-America first team honors to join Brad Bomba (1956) as the only IU players to be lauded both on the field and in the classroom. Starr has already been named a candidate for the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award and was tabbed as a semi-finalist for the 2008 Draddy Trophy, which recognizes one player as the best in the country for combined academic success, football performance and community leadership. He plans on enrolling in IU's School of Dentistry if he is not kicking in the National Football League next season.

OCT. 27 -- GERALD CADOGAN, PENN STATE

Cadogan was named a first-team Academic All-American in 2007 and will be a four-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree. The senior offensive lineman is on schedule to graduate in December with a double major in rehabilitation services and psychology. He is also active in the community in a variety of areas, including the PSU Student-Athlete Advisory Board, CHAMPS/Life Skills program, Student-Athlete Speakers Bureau and Shadow Day, Penn Pals, Pennsylvania Special Olympics Summer Games volunteer, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Penn State Dance Marathon volunteer, State College Police DARE program, Lifelink PSU (special needs children) and Athletes in Action. Also a talented musician, Cadogan sang the National Anthem prior to U.S. Senator Barack Obama's campaign visit to State College last spring.

METHOD TO DETERMINE BIG TEN CONFERENCE AUTOMATIC REPRESENTATIVE TO THE BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Effective for bowl games following the 2006-09 regular football seasons, the BCS will consist of five (5) bowl games: BCS National Championship Game, Rose Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, and Sugar Bowl. Participation by a Big Ten Conference institution will be determined as follows:

- a. BCS National Championship Game. In the event the conference has one or two football teams ranked No. 1 and/or No. 2 in the final BCS poll, these conference team(s) shall participate in the BCS National Championship Game.
- b. Rose Bowl. Unless ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS poll, the conference champion shall participate in the Rose Bowl. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of conference games (tie games counts ½ win and ½ loss). If there is a tie for the championship, the Rose Bowl representative will be determined as follows:
 - 1) An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the conference representative.
 - 2) If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between these two teams shall represent the conference.
 - 3) If there is still a tie for the championship, or if the tied teams did not play each other, the team that played more games against Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) teams shall be eliminated.
 - 4) If there is still a tie, or if the tied teams did not play each other, or if both teams played the same number of games against an FCS team(s), the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played.
 - 5) If there is still a tie, the most recent team earning BCS automatic selection shall be eliminated.
 - 6) If more than two teams tie for the championship, the same selection procedures shall be followed with the following exceptions:
 - a) If three teams are tied, and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.
 - b) If three teams are still tied, and if two of the three teams defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated, and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
 - c) If three teams are still tied, and there is a tie game between two of the three teams, or if two or all three of the teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played except, if one or two of the tied teams played more games against an FCS opponent than the other tied teams, then said team or teams shall be eliminated, and the remaining two teams, if applicable, shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
 - d) If three teams are still tied, and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
 - e) If three teams are still tied, and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the conference shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
 - 7) If four or more teams tie for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:
 - a) If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the representative.
 - b) If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
 - c) If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated, and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
 - d) If there is a tie game between two of the four teams, or if two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played, except, if one or more of the tied teams played more games against an FCS opponent than the other tied teams, then said teams shall be eliminated, and the remaining teams, if applicable, shall revert to the two- or three-team tie procedure.
 - e) If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
 - f) If all four teams are still tied and have the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
